

Arthropod Crossword

ACROSS

6. Marine arthropods are generally found in the subphylum _____.
8. Filter-feeding planktonic crustaceans with very long antennae.
12. The only animal in class Merostomata.
16. The arthropod circulatory system is _____.
17. The most numerous animals (by number of species) on earth.
18. Walking legs.
21. A U-shaped abdomen signifies that a crab is _____.
23. Shrimp, lobsters, & crabs tend to be _____ as far as how they feed.
27. Crustaceans that live in a shell made by a mollusk.
29. Arthropod symmetry is _____.
32. The digestive system of arthropods is _____.
33. planktonic shrimp-like crustaceans.
34. The fused head and chest region of decapods.
35. The only animal in class Pycnogonida.
36. The arthropod exoskeleton is made of _____.
37. What the spiny lobster lacks.
38. Common amphipods found among debris on the beach!

Down

1. The class that includes the sea spiders.
2. Common land-dwelling isopods.
3. Crustaceans that are sessile.
4. Small crustaceans with laterally compressed bodies.
5. The class of shrimp, lobsters, and crabs (10 legs)
7. The most common crustacean larva.
8. A shield-like structure that covers the anterior part of some crustaceans.
9. The phylum of jointed legged animals
10. The eyes of arthropods are made up of many eyes and are called _____.
11. The appendages closest to the mouth.
13. The type of lobster that we have here in The Pacific.
14. Chitin is what type of material?
15. Small crustaceans that are dorsoventrally flattened.
18. Swimmerets or specialized appendages for carrying eggs.
19. A V-shaped abdomen signifies that a crab is _____.
20. A tough non-living external skeleton of arthropods.
22. Isopods that are parasites of fish.
24. Another name for krill.
25. The class that includes the horseshoe crabs
26. The filter-feeding legs of barnacles.
28. Arthropods must _____ or shed to grow.
30. The class of arthropods that has only 6 legs as adult.
31. Crustaceans possess 2 pairs of antennae.